THE ART OF INTERFAITH UNDERSTANDING: SPRING 2020

Presented by Interfaith Philadelphia

Offered in partnership with the Philadelphia Museum of Art Division for Community Engagement and Access

Dr. John Hougen, Facilitator

To sign up for a tour, visit www.interfaithphiladelphia.org/art

SPRING 2020 SCHEDULE

Remembrance and Liberation: Images of Passover and Holy Week
Wednesday, March 18th
6:30-8:30pm

Art from the World’s Religions
Sunday, May 17th
2:00-4:30pm

Bible Stories in Art (Hebrew Bible and Christian New Testament)
Sunday, June 14th
2:00-4:00pm

To sign up for a tour, visit www.interfaithphiladelphia.org/art

UPCOMING FALL 2020 TOURS

Guided Meditations With Art, Exploring the Self and Other
Wednesday, September 16th

Religious Pluralism in America: Ideals and Obstacles
Sunday, October 18th

Continuity and Reform: Insights into the Protestant Reformation
Wednesday, November 18th
ART FROM THE WORLD’S RELIGIONS

Sunday, May 17th
2:00-4:30pm

One resource for understanding the religious traditions practiced by our neighbors is art produced within those traditions. We will view and discuss art illustrating beliefs and practices from Islam, Judaism, Christianity, Hinduism and Buddhism.

Cost: $25 or $10 with scholarship
Limit: 15 participants

BIBLE STORIES IN ART (HEBREW BIBLE AND CHRISTIAN NEW TESTAMENT)

Sunday, June 14th
2:00-4:00pm

An interactive tour for children and adults. Together we will view art that illustrates Bible stories and recall the stories that inspired them.

Cost $25 or $10 with scholarship
Limit: 15 Participants

REMEMBRANCE AND LIBERATION: IMAGES OF PASSOVER AND HOLY WEEK

Wednesday, March 18th
6:30-8:30pm

Meditating on works of art can lead us on “journeys inward” toward greater self-awareness and journeys outward” toward greater understanding of others. With openness to the spiritual dimension of such journeys, the group will be guided to provocative works of art for exploration and conversation.

Cost $25 or $10 with scholarship
Limit: 15 Participants